OF VAST BENEFIT TO PUBLIC.

Rockefeller Has Something Up His Sleeve.

New York, March 6.—A remark which John D. Rockefeller made to several reporters before starting for Augusta, Ga., has led to the publication of a report that he contemplates another large gift to the cause of education or philanthropy. In exuding himself to the reporters, Mr. Rockefeller said:

"I have matters of great importance to discuss with my son, matters of more importance to the public in the future than any chance remarks I might make just now."

"Do you mean that you contemplate the announcement of another bequest to the cause of education?" was asked.

"All I can say," Mr. Rockefeller replied, "is that I have something in mind which I believe will be of great benefit to the public."

At the office of the general education board, where the handling of the money already given by Mr. Rockefeller, it was said that nothing was known of any contemplated gift.

Frederick T. Gates, member of the board, said: "I know of no gift. He said that if such a gift was contemplated by Mr.

Rockefeller it would be announced as soon as all the arrangements were made.

A Weak Heart

Seldom gets strong again without help. Awake or asleep, it never stops, and consequently has no period of rest or relaxation in which to regain lost vigor. You should avoid exertion, excitement and worry as much as possible, to relax the strain, and take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which is a heart tonic, to strengthen and restore vigor to the heart nerves and muscles. The symptoms of a weak heart are shortness of breath, palpitation, feeble or too rapid pulse, hungry spells, hot flashes, dizziness, smothering spells, pain in heart or side, etc.

"I had been treated for heart disease by different physicians without success.
Finally my doctor informed me that there was hope of my ever being able to do a day's work again. After that I got a good rest, and now am and have been able to tell you that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life, and I want you to try it. If you are suffering, write or call me, and I will send you the details of the physician who told him I had been taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.
He examined me and said, 'Get miles' better in a few days than I ever expected to see you again.' I am now well, having restored my health by the use of this remedy."

Mrs. Augusta M. Sinclair, widow of Orville Sinclair, died at noon Tuesday at her home in Burlington after an illness covering a period of several years. Mrs. Sinclair had been in failing health, owing to her advanced years, for the past four years but her condition did not become serious until about four weeks ago. Mrs. Sinclair was born in Springfield, October 7, 1833, and was therefore in her 74th year. At the age of 12 years she moved to Burlington and since that time had made her home in the house in which she died.
In 1852 she married Orville Sinclair, who died April 14, 1874. Three sons survive her, Henry T. of Los Angeles, Cal., Frank O., superintendent of the water department of Burlington, and George S. Sinclair, who made his home with his mother. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the house with interment in Green Mount cemetery.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Colonel Howard died suddenly Monday morning at his home in Middlebury at the age of 57 years. He is survived by his wife and one son, Steven Howard, of New York city. Mr. Howard was about as usual Sunday. Mr. and Mrs.
Howard have lived in Middlebury for the past six months coming from Providence, R. I., where Mr. Howard was engaged in the jewelry business for 25 years. Before going to Providence he was a resident of New York city. He served in the Civil War and was an adjutant of 2nd regiment New York volunteers, heavy artillery and was promoted to first lieutenant. The financial arrangements have not been made awaiting the arrival of his son from New York. The remains will be taken to Providence, R. I., where they will be buried in the family lot beside his first wife.

The case involves nearly $200,000, which Kidd is alleged to have invested in the companies that owned and built the street railway lines in southeastern New Hampshire, now embodied in the New Hampshire traction system. Henry Whittemore of Worcester, Mass., was associated with Mr. Kidd as a plaintiff.
